Uthapan/Sthapan Program June 26th- 27th, 2010

The Murtis Uthapan/Sthapan Vidhi was celebrated over two weekends. On June 20th we had Uthapan Vidhi under the guidance of Shri Ashokbhai from Chicago and H.H. Shri Davendrakeertiji. On 26th we had Lubdhi Nidhan Pujan and the evening was filled with cultural program.

On Sunday, June 27th, a once in a life time gorgeous procession was planned to take Pratimajis from old center to the new center. Pratimajis were in two floats. The first float decorated in Indian flag colors with Parshwanathji's Pratima in a palkhi and Namokarmantra Sheela. The second float decorated in Jain colors with Mahavir Swamiji and Adinathji's pratimas in red decorated palkhi. The Bhagawan's floats and the Sangh were led by Sanghpati followed by Akhand Dharavahi and Dhup vahi. 108 women walked along the floats in same colors saris with kalash in their hand. Every one was dancing, chanting and singing devotional stavans. It was a breath taking view.

As the procession reached the new temple Sthapan vidhi were performed by vidhikar H H Shri Davendrakeertiji and Shri Hiteshbhai. Adhar Abhishek puja was the final puja of the day.

It was very joyous occasion for JCGB. The procession has a lasting effect in our memory for years to come.

Logistics Committee Report

It gives me a great pleasure to present you a report on a successful Uthapan-Sthapan event held in month of June. It was Executive committee with solid team work between various committees made the event successful and memorable!

Renovation committee: Sanjay Shah (Chair), Dilip Gandhi, Pradip Gosalia, Dilip Jain, Priti Jain, Sudhir Shah, Kashmira Vora, Premal Vora The committee along with the support from over 150 volunteers completed the work successfully besides the constraints of aggressive time schedule & specified budget. Over $50,000 was saved as members spent countless number of volunteer hours in painting, floor polishing, cleanup work. Hats off to the team.

Logistics committee: Jitendra Vora (Chair), Arti Mehta (Chair), Shrenik Shah, Haresh Tamboli, Narendra Zaveri. The event planning was a big challenge. It was to coordinate and follow up over 160 items. It was a major task. Besides the main event, the team was incharge to ensure proper arrangements of Audio/Video setup & media coverage of the event. It was a successful and gratifying experience.

Vidhi Vidhan Committee: Pankaj Shah (Chair), Kulbhushan Jain, Dharmaraj Khot, Ashok Shah, Harendra Shah. The committee put tremendous efforts in selection and follow-up on Dignitaries and Vidhikars and, musicians. They took care of travel & housing arrangements. They made special efforts to get exclusive Vidhi items from India

Procession Committee: Arti Mehta (Chair), Narendra Zaveri, Shrenik Shah. The Committee spent countless hours in preparation & planning of floats / Palkhi / decoration etc. They ensured Procession approval from town of Norwood. Many volunteers came forward to ensure success of the 1.2 mile procession besides there was an anxiety since JCGB never done it before! Excellent heartwarming Job!!

Food Committee: Kiran Shah (Chair), Anshuman Gosalia, Gauriya Jain, Bharat Shah (Nashua), Neela Shah (Westboro), Nutan Vora Everyone loved food! Excellent planning & execution paid off! We had record turn out of members then anticipated but we never ran out of food.

Puja Samagri Committee: Mita Shah (Chair), Chitra Dalal, Laxmiben Jain, Rani Jain, Jyotsna Shah, Lalitaben Shah, Ranjan Shah Making arrangement of over 200 items & availability during each event was a big challenge but they did it! Excellent work indeed.

I would like to express deep gratitude & thanks to all committees, EC/Board & many many volunteers.

Vidhi-Vidhan Committee Report

(K.B. Jain, Dharmraj Khot, Ashok Shah and Pankaj Shah)

Vidhi-Vidhan committee members take deep satisfaction in that all of the vidhis and poojans during the Uthapan and Sthapan ceremonies were performed as planned and on time. The participation and enthusiasm expressed by our community was beyond our imagination. With minimal efforts, the fundraising through boils was a big success. Thanks to all who participated in the vidhis and poojans.

We take this opportunity to express our gratitude to all who helped us plan the vidhis and poojans for our event. Our foremost thanks goes to Shri Atulbhai Shah, President of Jain Society of Metropolitan Chicago (JSMC), who in consultation with Shri Hiteshbhai planned all of the Vidhis and Poojans. Inputs were also received from H.H. Guru Shri Devendrakeertiji. In addition, Tejas Shah, JSMC Secretary, Nareshbhai Shah of Jain Center of America (New York City), and Pradip and Darshana Shah of JSMC provided necessary guidance.

We will also take this opportunity to express our sadness in that Shri H.H. Guru Shri Davendrakeertiji will not be with us for future events. He had provided us a two page long detailed input for all of the Abhiseks, Vedi Suddhi, and numerous other vidhis that were performed by devotees. Many were performed by him. His divine presence during all of the events was truly blissful. Our thanks to the hardworking members of the Samagri Committee in keeping over 200 items ready for all vidhis and poojans.

Procession Committee Report

(Arti Mehta, Shrenik Shah, Narendra Zaveri)

If we look back and think about it now, it was a MONUMENTAL task. The task was to move pratimajis and Sheela weighing 150+lb. each and Mulnayakji with unstable parikar, plus about 300 people walking 1.3 mile in hot weather of June. We had to think about public safety. We had to comply with Mass General Laws and Norwood Public Safety Laws. We completed the task and completed very well. Thanks to the entire team.

No program of such a magnitude can be done by one person. One can have a vision but it requires a team to make the vision a reality. Some helped many hours and often, some could spare only few hours and some of you helped as and when asked. But each and every minute of your help made a difference. That commitment and cooperation made the event successful.

We would like to thank Chandresh Doshi, Pradip Mehta, Mamta Mehta, Preeti Jain, Preeti Turakhia, Manoj Mehta, Laxmiben Jain, Yogen Jain, Manoj Jain, Anshuman Gosalia, Manoj Turakhia, Vandana Jain, Umang Jain, Nimit Mehta, Shardule Shah, Shrenik Shah, Tarang Gosalia, Tanmay Gosalia, Pradip Gosalia, Sanjay Shah (Foxboro), Anu Mehta, Vinsu Mehta, Chandrakant Vora, Silvi, Piyusha Shah, Sahil Shah, Aruna Vora, Hiteshi and Rajen Jhaveri, Tarang and Gauriya Jain, Priyum, Ria and many more who volunteer during the function.

Report from Food Committee

(Anshuman Gosalia, Gauriya Jain, Bharat Shah, Neela Shah, Nutan Vora, and Kiran Shah)

Food committee members would like to thank the Sangh in making the event a great success. Without Sangh's co-operation and patience we would not have been able to complete our tasks as envisioned.

The team would like to acknowledge support of Sanjay & Neela Shah, Suresh & Shobhna Shah, and, Shanti and Rukmini Kenia for sponsoring Swamivatsalya during the event.

Many volunteers helped us in making the event a great success. Special thanks to Mahesh Reshamwala, Yogesh Parikh & Hemant Shah, Subhash Jain, Hemanshu Shah (NH), Vikram, Mitesh Kothari, & Sheilly Jain along with countless others who helped in set up, serving food, serving water and cleaning up.

Samagri Committee:

The Puja Samagri volunteers did a tremendous job! They collected the necessary materials, 200+ items for all of the pujans. This included making some of the materials at home, purchasing or donating other items, and ultimately dispersing them as needed. We thank the following volunteers: Chitra Dalal, Harshida Shah, Kalpana Shah, Ranjan Shah, Lalitaben Shah, Jyotsanaben Shah, Sonali Khot, Laxmi Jain, Rani Jain, Sunita Gandhi, Bhavik Shah, and Mamta Mehta.

Picnic

The picnic could best describe with 3 words and that is Best picnic place, excellent weather, and highest attendance in JCGB history. More than 250 people attended the picnic. It was held at new place Castle Island Boston. Castle Island has beautiful park, castle, water front, picnic area, children's playground, walking trail and beaches. Response from Members was all positive and overwhelming. Members would like to keep Castle Island as picnic place for next few years. Thank you to all the volunteers who help prepare the food. Thank you, Nutan Vora for coordinating food.

We may try different location every year or repeat Castle Island for the picnic. If you know of any good location for our picnic, please send your suggestions to Executive Committee.

President's Report..

The feedback has been very positive on success of this event. The success of it would not have been possible without great support from over 150 volunteers. On behalf of EC & Board, I would like to express deep gratitude & thanks to all sub-committees & many many volunteers. Special thanks to members who provided printing, decoration, audio/video & other services free of cost.

Now that we have beautiful facility, we should continue to strive for bringing up new events. We are looking for new ideas as well as participation from you to make it happen. Best example was bringing Kumar Chatterjee's music program to our center by our members. Kumarjee sung many Jain stavans & sutras.

On the sad note, Gurudev Devendrakirtiji whose divine presence during recent event, died of cardiac arrest. All Jains around the world will miss him.

We had record turn out at the JCGB picnic held at the Castle Island. Members enjoyed nice weather & food. Many thanks to organizers & volunteers.

The arrival of the month of September brings the start of many activities at the Jain Center. The preparations are in full swing for Paryushana / DasLaxana parvas starting on Sept 4th and continuing onto Sept 22rd. Acharya Lokesh Munuji and Samaniji will enlighten us during these parvas. Please make a point to participate fully during these days.

Sincerely,

Jitendra Vora

Our New Home

Shardule Shah

In the words of my (non-Jain) family friend, upon his first look at the new derasar in relation to the old derasar, he stated, "This is the kind of home the Jain community deserves." I thought about that for a second and realized that statement could not be truer. Our Jain community has the hardest working and most generous individuals of any Jain community in the United States. For nearly 30 years, a Jain community of 250+ families was able to dominate the North American Jain landscape despite residing in a derasar that logistically was not adequate for a community of our size.

The sacrifice put in by all of the committee members enabled the entire Boston Jain community to pray and play in an environment that makes everyone proud to call it our "home". What I saw leading up to the events of June was unending effort. Blood, sweat, and tears were poured into every aspect of our new home. And the end result is breathtaking. The events that happened in June were truly "history in the making".

The Uthapan/Sthapan program allowed JCGB to take a large step forward in building a better Jain community. I was thrilled to see every member of our Boston Jain community took part in the festivities. Remembering the dancing, singing, walking in the procession, performing of pujans, etc., we could have not had a better grand opening to our new home, the home that our community deserves.

A large thank you to the committee members who put their heart and soul into ensuring that the Jain Center of Greater Boston remains the greatest Jain community in North America and properly bestowed with a home to match our spirit.

Sradhanjali to His Holiness Jagadguru Shri Devendrakeertiji

By: Pankaj K. Shah

It comes as a shock to hear of his death especially since he was amongst us just three weeks ago.

He was one of the great Jain saints, thinkers, and scientists. He revolutionized the way people worldwide looked at Jainism. He always worked with all four sects of Jains in North America without any discrimination. In spite of his learning and being the Chief Guruji of one of the most popular Jain mathas in Karnataka had imbued him with skill and tact, but did not affect the essential simplicity and niceness of the man.

He had immense knowledge of Jain philosophy and scientific knowledge of ritual ceremonies. He was a great learned scholar; these facts get ignored or overshadowed largely because people in the US knew him only as a monk who performs pratishtha.

He was born in Karnataka State, India. He received B.Sc. in 1971. At this age, just out of school, he accepted the saintly life (Diksha) in 1971 and shortly thereafter, was assigned as the Head of Sri Hombuja Jain Math. Even after he accepted Deeksha, he continued his formal education and received an M.A. in philosophy in 1974 and Doctorate (PhD) in 1979.

He traveled throughout India and foreign countries to grace various religious, social, cultural, national and international functions. He participated and represented India in the World Religious Parliament numerous times.

He ran several educational institutions to help impart the religious, moral, and cultural values of ancient Indian religions to the general public in state of Karnataka. As a highly learned scholar and orator, he has written several books on religion and philosophy and has delivered hundreds of speeches around the world. Various organizations and general public have decorated his Holiness with various titles.

He had mastery over several languages such as English, Kannada, Hindi, Tulu, Sanskrit, and Prakrut. He was also the chief editor of a monthly religious magazine, "Guredeva." His Holiness has published numerous Jain books under the name of Sri Siddhanthakeerty Granthmala which was started by his Holiness. .

Our Boston sangh is very fortunate that Guruji performed Sthapana vidhi at JCGB in 2002, and also the recent Uthpan/Shthapan program. Even though he was very busy at the Jain Center of America (New York City), he managed to come to JCGB for Uthapan vidhi on June 19th and came back again for Sthapan vidhi of 27th June. We came away sanctified after witnessing these ceremonies.

Jains all over the world will miss this great man; both a highly learned scholar, but also a simple, modest, and kind Guruji.

May he attain the highest liberation.

Uthapan/Sthapan Program

Anuradha Mehta

JCGB to me was always a place or a group for religious purposes. Every year members come together to celebrate Mahavir Jayanti, Diwali, etc. However the Uthapan / Sthapan did not only provide the community a religious reason to bond, it also allowed for members to bond and find a new home to call our own and showed the Norwood community the colors and beliefs of Jainism. Everything from start to finish was planned well and executed well. I witnessed young girls and boys discussing with their young friends how everything was so colorful and how they had a big space to run around in. During the parade, many American families came out of their homes to see what was happening. Some even asked questions about what the parade was about, and a prideful Jain replied with full glory about all they knew. This was refreshing and exciting to see. Some Americans even walked with the parade keeping a close eye on the graceful dancers moving to the soothing music and the walkers dressed in colorful sarees, chanya choli and dhoti kurta. Even Deval Patrick and his secretary had a lot to say about our togetherness.

Additionally the evening program added to the strong bond that years of JCGB had already created. All generations performed. Performances varied from garba-ras, dandya, and bhangra. Even with technical difficulties and some impatient audience, the ladies and men demonstrated that there is no age limit to rejoicing the opening of our new home. Every moment of both days kept the audience on their toes. Food to dancing, walking to singing, everything went as planned (of course everything was based on India standard time – but that is why we love our Jain community). The executive committee put in effort continuously, disregarding all their other commitments or time. Their energy seemed never ending. The smiles of the community turned their exhaustion into passion and they all continued to dance, sing, and run around gathering troops for the next part of the program. I am proud to say that I am part of such a community, where people not only gather for religious occasions but come together to celebrate their new home and their togetherness. I cannot thank the executive board enough for working endless hours to put together something that will be imprinted in our hearts and minds forever.

Pathshala update

Jai Jinendra,

Pathshala is on 1st Sunday of the month from 10.00 AM to 12.30 PM followed by lunch.

At Pathshala, Students not only learn Jain philosophy, prayers and sutras but they are thought to follow Jain way of life and inspire others to do the same.

Due to reduced attendance / interest in Language classes the staff members of Pathshala have regrettably decided to Discontinue these sessions as of this year.

Pathshala classes will continue as usual and will end at 12.30. The time slot of Language classes will now be allotted for Diwali cultural program practice. From December onwards we are planning on starting other activities such as sutra classes/ Yoga/ games etc

Adults are encouraged to attend Swadhyay classes led by Dharmraj bhai Khot.

There are many things which I liked, but the best of them are:

1. Organized and maintained schedule on Sthapan day - almost perfect.
2. Procession after Uthapan to the new center was so colorful with beautifully dressed people, tremendous crowd and support and a grand welcome for the murti sthapanas.
3. Unity amongst all people during the event, helping nature from everyone, volunteering support during lunch/dinner.

All-in-all, I have never seen such a wonderful religious event in my life.

Best wishes for the new center and regards,

I loved everything about Uthapana / Sthapan. Everything was very well planned and very well done. It was great to see such a grand event during my lifetime. Rath-yatra was beyond my imagination. Non-Jain and Jain came from all over and were united for this occasion like a big happy family. Everyone was very excited to find this treasure and for that I would like to commend the Executive Board and all the helpers for putting together a day to be written in books.

I am deeply appreciative that the pictures have been posted. Due to a personal issue I was not able to attend any of the ceremonies for the move to the new temple. Seeing the pictures allowed me to participate in a way and share the joy for this auspicious occasion.

Best wishes,

Ruth Eisenbud
